Joining Aggie Mothers’ Clubs

The purpose of the Federation of Texas A&M University Mothers’ (Aggie Mothers’ Clubs) is, by individual and united effort, to contribute in every way to the comfort and welfare of the students. Aggie Mothers’ Clubs also work with Texas A&M University in maintaining a high standard of moral conduct and intellectual attainment.

Clubs typically host events for Aggie families, such as teas or barbecues, and invite speakers from campus. Some do fundraising events to provide scholarships or give financial support to student organizations or service areas such as Student Life or Student Counseling Service. Aggie Mothers’ Clubs offer their members special tours and outings, as well as sponsor the Parents’ Weekend Aggie Moms’ Boutique and Finals Packets for Aggie students. The Federation also participates in New Student Conference Parent Socials and hosts a fall Aggie Mom Camp weekend in College Station.

Aggie Mothers’ Clubs exist all over the country and are made up of guardians of students or former students of Texas A&M University.

Even if an individual is not a mother or the legal guardian of a student or former student, he or she may be an associate member of a club, provided that the club’s constitution and bylaws permit associate membership.

Mothers or guardians of students or former students of Texas A&M residing in an area where there are no local Aggie Mothers’ Clubs within a 25 mile radius of their residence may become members of the existing clubs in the Adopt-A-Mom Program. In the Adopt-A-Mom Program, mothers become dues paying members of existing clubs and receive all the benefits that the club has to offer. The moms are notified of special projects that the club provides for students such as exam packs and receive the club’s newsletter. Because many moms live out of state and out of country, this allows them to feel a part of the group.
